College Debates

"We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained, it must not break our bonds of affection. The mystic chords of memory will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature."

"The occasion is piled high with difficulty, and we must rise with the occasion."

Abraham Lincoln

As Gettysburgians, we have a special responsibility to strengthen democracy.

On November 19, 1863—following the bloodiest battle of the Civil War—President Abraham Lincoln stood before Gettysburg students, faculty, and townspeople and proclaimed “that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.”

Today, we are seeing democracy challenged, both in the United States and around the world. Inspired by our history, we are called to rise to this decisive moment.
